

2019 John Deere Drive Your Future Academy
June 24-28, 2019 | San Francisco, CA

Application Deadline: April 1, 2019

Overview:

The First Tee has partnered with John Deere to create an exciting event that recognizes the value of young women who are driven to make a difference at their chapters, schools and communities. The purpose of the Academy is to provide a national all-girls' event that inspires teenage, female participants to stay involved in The First Tee, graduate from high school and pursue a college degree. This five-day experience will focus on leadership development, remaining active in the game of golf, learning the value/impact of volunteerism, and recognizing the importance of teamwork. Applicants should articulate how they have been 'driven' to become a current and future leader based on lessons learned from The First Tee.

Sample Event Daily Schedule:

6:15am	Rise and Shine
7:00am – 7:45am	Participant breakfast at San Francisco State University
7:50am	Transition to TPC Harding Park
8:00am – Noon	Education: Drive your Future Success
Noon – 12:45pm	Lunch
12:50pm – 3:00pm	Education continued
3:00pm – 3:30pm	Transition to practice areas/golf course
3:30pm – 6:30pm	9-hole Golf & Life Skills activity at Harding Park
6:30pm – 9:30pm	Evening activity/Dinner
9:30pm	Transition to dorms at San Francisco State University
10:30pm	Lights Out

Below is a copy of the application you will need to complete online; please refer to the application below to make sure that you have all of the information you need to complete your application online. Online application MUST be submitted by The First Tee participant. The First Tee will NOT accept correspondence from families of participants. The deadline to apply online is April 1, 2019.

Selection Process:

Following the closing date of April 1, 2019, a judging committee made up of home office, chapter, and John Deere staff will review the above items and identify the 24 candidates that will be invited to the John Deere Drive Your Future Academy by assigning point values to the categories. These participants will be notified on Academy selections on May 8, 2019.

Air Transportation and Lodging:

The First Tee home office will reimburse each Academy attendee’s chapter up to $400 per domestic round trip ticket. Each chapter/participant is responsible for booking his/her own airfare by the posted deadline. If a participant withdraws from the Academy after his/her ticket has been purchased, the chapter will not be reimbursed for the ticket. All ground transportation, lodging and meals will be provided for the duration of the program. Participants will be housed in the dorms at San Francisco State University.

Social Media Code of Conduct

The First Tee Code of Conduct requires participants to demonstrate the Nine Core Values in their everyday lives and, in particular, to show respect for oneself, others and your surroundings. While these behaviors are expected in face-to-face situations, you must also abide by The First Tee Code of Conduct and The First Tee Nine Core Values while using any social media platform to communicate with other chapter participants or with anyone about The First Tee.

Additionally, The First Tee's copyrighted words, logos and trademarks may not be used in any manner on social media pages that would make it appear to be represented by The First Tee. For example, you cannot create a social media group or page that appears to be sponsored by The First Tee.

If you fail to adhere to The First Tee Code of Conduct and the Nine Core Values, there will be consequences which may include cancellation of benefits and being prohibited from participating in future participant events hosted by The First Tee home office. The home office will also involve parents and chapter leaders in these discussions as needed.

The First Tee considers social media to include all personal websites and all forms of online community activities such as online blogs, social networks, message boards, conversation pages, chat rooms, emails and cell phone texting.
